

I request the defeat of the CBA supported law to allow my bank and their business customers to phone me at my home. My protection from business phone calls is more important than their support of their business customers. My bank (Bank One) can contact me by US Mail, or E-Mail, and I can contact a business by phone if the need arises.